Amend an Act passed in the Ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter sixty-two, so far as the same relates to the Linen and Yarn Halls in the city of Dublin.

A.D. 1873.

WHEREAS by the Act of the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter sixty-two, sections thirty-six and thirty-seven, provision is made for the appropriation to public purposes of certain premises therein described as the linen and yarn halls in the city of Dublin, and the houses, offices, and grounds adjoining thereto, and the other estate and property therein referred to when the same should be thought unnecessary for the purposes of the linen, yarn, or cotton trades of Ireland, at such rents as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governors of Ireland should appoint:

And whereas certain parts of the said premises, being unnecessary for the purposes of the linen, yarn, or other trades of Ireland, have been appropriated to other than public purposes, and it is expedient to ratify and confirm such appropriation, and to extend the provisions of the said Act as to the purposes to which the said premises may be appropriated, or for which they may be let:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The appropriation at any time heretofore made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland of any part or parts of the said linen or yarn halls, or any of the houses or grounds adjoining thereto, deemed unnecessary for the purposes of the linen, yarn, or cotton trades of Ireland, and the lettings made pursuant thereto shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid and effectual, and are hereby confirmed in all respects as if
